RUSSIAN CRUISER SUNK.

Admiral Kamimura Routed the Vladivostok Squadron.

Sortie From Port Arthur—Running Naval Fight—Japanese Take a Russian Boat From Neutral Port—G. A. R. Encampment—Judge Parker Notified—Scarcity of Teachers.

Vice Admiral Kamimura encountered the Russian Vladivostok squadron at dawn Sunday north of Tsu Island in the strait of Corea and attacked the enemy at once.
The battle lasted for five hours and resulted in a complete Japanese victory. The Russian cruiser Rurik was sunk and the cruisers Rossia and Gromobol fled to the northward after having sustained serious damage.
Vice Admiral Kamimura cables the navy department that the injuries inflicted upon his vessels were slight.
The Japanese squadron began the rescue of the drowning Russians and picked up 600 of the crew of the Rurik.

The strength of the fleet under Vice Admiral Kamimura is not known, but it is presumed that he had the Adsumo, Idsumo, Iwate, Takashio and other light cruisers.
Japanese guns dominate the dock yards at Port Arthur and in view of this fact it would seem to be impossible again to make seaworthy or fightable the Russian battleships which have returned to Port Arthur. It is probable that the Russian battleship Czarevitch will be disarmed at Tselgehoun.

Jap Cutting Out Exploit.

A boarding party from Japanese torpedo destroyers boarded the dismantled Russian torpedo boat destroyer Rishitsheli in Chefoo harbor Friday morning at 3:30 o'clock. The Japanese discharged their small arms and during the firing a Russian was wounded in one of his legs.
Daybreak showed a third Japanese destroyer towing the Rishitsheli out of the harbor and all disappeared.
The Japanese consul claims that the Japanese ships were ignorant of the dismantling of the Rishitsheli. A press representative, however, informed the Japanese naval officers of the fact when he visited the two Japanese destroyers at 2:30 o'clock that morning.

Running Naval Battle.

The Japanese legation has received the following cablegram from the foreign office at Tokio:
"Admiral Togo reports that the Russian squadron proceeded southward after the sortie from Port Arthur on Aug. 19 and were attacked by the combined Japanese fleet 25 miles southeast of Port Arthur. They were pursued in an easterly direction. Sharp fighting continued from of darkness Thursday night, snowing, no lights, and anchored a quarter of a mile from the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Rishitsheli, which had been moved by a movement anchorage. The Japanese officers said they would depart at daylight.

It is understood that the Chinese admiral discovered the presence of the Japanese torpedo boat destroyers and presented the same demands to them that he had earlier given to the Russian destroyer Rishitsheli, namely, either to leave port or disarm.

Admiral Withoft Reported Killed.

A report from Tsingchou states that the Russian warships still there are the battleship Czarevitch, the protected cruisers Pallada and Novik and three torpedo boat destroyers. The Czarevitch, which is badly damaged, is being repaired with German assistance, it is alleged.
A report has also been received here to the effect that Admiral Withoft was killed in the naval battle of Round Island last Wednesday.

Falling Off in Export Trade.

Bradstreet's summary of the state of trade says:
Fall trade expands but slowly, conservatism, based apparently upon crop disappointments or uncertainties and labor troubles, ruling most lines of distribution.
Government figures of crop conditions just issued are, in the main, favorable, though vitiated by early date of reports. Predicted reductions in the winter wheat crop output are confirmed, but are counterbalanced by improvement in other crops, pointing to a general yield of food products well above the average.
Jobbing trade the country over, while perhaps up to expectations, is not equal to last year's.
Industrial conditions are not altogether promising in view of the continuance of the meat strike, which, by the way, is interfering with the leather and shoe trade; the Fall River difficulty, and calling out a large number of building hands at the metropolis.
The price movement this week shows exceptional strength, continuing the upward movement noted during July. Higher prices of farm products are regarded as a possible offset to smaller yields, but it is to be noted that export trade in food staples in July fell to the lowest point in many years.
All in all, the situation may be characterized as still irregular, though the general tone of business outlook is one of confidence.
Business failures for the week ending Aug. 11 number 167, against 160 in the like week in 1903.

The brothers are millionaires. With two Jacksons on the ticket the Democrats believe the negro illiterates will be unable to pick their candidate and the Democrats look for a big majority.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Survivors of Three Wars In a Great Parade.

Election of Officers by Union Ex-Prisoners—Banquet at Faneuil Hall to a Score of Ex-Confederate Officers. Parade Reviewed by Mayor Collins and Governor Bates.

Boston, Aug. 16.—A reunion of comrades of the states of the Union, an exchange of happy recollections and a fraternal mingling of confederate and unionist marked the opening in this city of the national encampment of the G. A. R. At noon a picturesque parade of the Union ex-prisoners of war, blue jackets from the United States warships and others, marked the opening of the G. A. R. convention, together with its numerous subsidiary organizations, including the Woman's Relief corps, the Ladies of the G. A. R. and the Sons and Daughters of Veterans.
Last night, in historic Faneuil hall, a score of the former confederate officers gathered around the banquet board as the guests of Edward W. Kinsley post of Boston, as did also Lafayette post of New York, and here were enunciated firmly and convincingly the declaration that the North and South are strongly and inseparably welded into one nation, with the past strife forgotten forever.
In the striking pageant of the day marched survivors of three wars, the Mexican war, the civil war, represented by the Union ex-prisoners, and the Spanish war as commemorated by the League of Spanish War Veterans.
The parade, composed of about 6,000 men, was reviewed by Mayor Collins at City hall, and Governor Bates, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long at the State House.
At the Faneuil hall dinner, Governor Bates gave the welcome of the commonwealth and several confederate officers declared for the spirit of unity between the North and South.
Another meeting of the evening was the camp fire at Tremont temple held by the Union ex-prisoners of war, with prominent speakers, while the reception of national officers of the Woman's Relief corps at the Hotel Vendome to Commander-in-Chief John C. Black and others of the G. A. R. was a notable function.
At the camp fire of the Ex-Prisoners Colonel J. D. Walker of Pittsburg, Pa., national commander of the association, made a brief address and introduced Captain John A. Read, U. S. N., who presided. Captain Read recounted Judge Parker Notified.

The formal notification to Judge Parker of his nomination for the presidency took place Wednesday afternoon at Rosemount. The committee appointed by the St. Louis convention came up from New York on the steam yacht Sagamore. Hon. Champ Clark of Missouri, permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention made the speech of notification, which was replied to by Judge Parker, who, in accepting the nomination touched upon some of the issues of the campaign, and promised a fuller exposition of his views later.

of some of his experiences during an eight months confinement in a confederate prison pen, and declared that the men who died miserably in military prisons were as heroic and did as glorious work for their country as did those who charged the enemy in battle.

Barre Chamberlain of Barre Plains, a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars, and J. C. Ferguson of Keokuk, Ia., national chaplain of the ex-prisoners' association, spoke interestingly.

Governor John L. Bates, who followed said: "As I saw you marching through our streets today bearing the banners inscribed with the names of those prisoners in which you suffered so miserably; when I saw you, the remaining few of the many thousands, I said, 'there is the true lesson in patriotism.'"
"Tonight I welcome you to Massachusetts as men who have fought a good fight and men who have kept the faith."
Colonel Dana King of New Hampshire was the last speaker. His remarks were of a reminiscent nature. The camp fire closed with the singing of "America."

Late in the afternoon the association held a business meeting and elected these officers: Commander-in-Chief, Colonel J. B. Walker, Pittsburg, Pa.; senior vice commander, John Kinsley, Cincinnati; junior vice commander, John L. Parker, Lynn, Mass.; chaplain, Rev. J. C. Ferguson, Keokuk, Ia.

Much time was taken up with a discussion whether the ex-prisoners would rather have a medal of honor or a pension from the United States. A motion asking the United States to issue a special medal of honor to all those veterans who had been in rebel prisons was lost, and it was almost unanimously voted to petition the next congress to pass a bill providing that every prisoner of war be paid $2 for each day he was in prison.

Survivors of the Rurik.

Nagasaki, Aug. 16.—Six hundred survivors of the crews of the Russian cruiser Rurik which was sunk by Admiral Kamimura off Utsun, Corea, Sunday morning, have arrived at Sasebo.
The Japanese hospital ship Salko also has arrived at Sasebo with 75 Japanese wounded, including Imperial Prince Hiroyasu Kwaoko, who was slightly wounded in the naval engagement off Rour's island.

Fined For Plucking Live Chicken.

New Castle, Pa., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Mary Conti was arrested by Rev. Louis E. Shuster, humane officer, for having plucked the feathers from a live chicken. Before Alderman Ranney she admitted plucking the feathers, but said she had not sufficient nerve to chop off the fowl's head.
